10:30-10:45: Morning Break

10:45–11:45: The Impact Demographic Changes Have on Civil Jury Verdicts

Those of us who litigate, mediate or arbitrate civil cases have all wondered whether the influx of folks from other states, and the insurgence of “Millennials” has had an impact on civil jury verdicts in our area. Laura Dominic, a senior consultant with Tsongas Litigation Consulting, Inc., will tell us what the statistics show.

11:45-12:45: Buffet lunch

12:45-2:00 Clackamas County Presiding Judge and Court Staff Update – For One and All

Get the latest must-have information and practice tips from Presiding Judge Robert Herndon and his intrepid staff. You don't want to miss this if you practice at all in Clackamas County!

2:00-2:45: Can't Get Your Judgment Approved in Your Family Law Case? Find Out Why

You won't get your divorce judgment signed by a judge without first getting it approved by Lisa Edwards. Find out from the source what you need to do to get 'er done.

2:45-3:00: Afternoon break

3:00-4:00: Arbitration Training – a Necessity for Those on the Clackamas Co. Panel

Eric Tait will provide the update needed to stay on the panel of approved arbitrators in Clackamas County.

4:00-5:00: Child Abuse Reporting – For One and All

Sr. Judge Eve Miller will provide the information we all need to have in case we become aware of child abuse.
